Out to See the Sights.
It appears that Mr. Conners and Mr. bristopher, leaving their spouses at Siliotel Beimont, fared forth to see he sights last night. Early morning ound them enjoying the languorous refined conversation and scintil ant companionship that prevalls in th treet from Tammany Hall.

From Sharkey's the two visitors from ettle wandered to the Hotel Royal. absequently sounds of conflict, shricks, ells and thuds reached the ears of Poeman Kohler, who was on his beat couple of blocks away.

Following the sounds to their source phier invaded the Hotel Royal. He nd the visitors from Seattle sore beset Mr. Christopher was in a corner shielding himself with a chair. Mr compers was hidden from view by wait-re and other hotel employees who were empassed in mauring him.

Following the naturally pacific bent of an experienced cop. Koehler rescued the two visitors from Scattle and advised them to be on their way. Mr. Conners thereupon waxed indignant. He said no New York con could boss him and essayed to foreibly pluck Koehler's shield from his blouse. Arrested All Tiree.

Eventually Koehler was forced to arrest Conners and Christopher and Laft and lock them in the East Twenty-second street station house. An ambinings surgeon from Believue Hospital did much work on Conners in the interval between his arrest and his arrestempent.

Neither of the Seattle visitors had anything to say in the Police Court.
Left said they were making a disturbance and he tried to quiet them.
"This man." said the sight clerk, pointing to Conners, "told me he had killed two men and I would be the third metch on his gun."
"What did you do?" asked Mariatra. ald you do?" asked Magistra Mouse.

"I dropped him downstairs and fol-owed him down," replied Laft.
Fines of $10 each were imposed.
Neither Conners nor Christopher had enough ready money to satisfy Clerk Fins. They had to send out an express money order, abstracted from a bale lonners carried in his packet, and get it cashed.

Men's Clothing Prescribed By Comfort and Good Sense

The Gimbel NO-PADDING Sack Coat started a furore in the trade two months ago, and has been delighting sensible men ever since. Here is a letter from one appreciative man, who permits us to print what he writes, provided we do not publish his name:

Messrs. Gimbel Brothers, New York. Gentlemen:

Gentlemen:

Permit me to congratulate you for your courage and good sense in introducing again to the public non-padding clothing. What we men who are obliged often to buy ready-made clothing have suffered in the Summer by this ridiculous padding business no one can ever know. In hot climates other than our own they know how to dress and make themselves comfortable; but here, like a lot of idiots, we are compelled to go about covered with wadding and canvas just

You deserve a great deal of credit for your sensible step towards comfort, and though I had never made a purchase in your great store, I was so delighted with what you have done I went yesterday and spent a few dollars for many little things, and will go for clothes a little later. many little t little later. ## FINAL-Sums Up This Situation in Women's Cloth Top-coats and Tomorrow

$15 Will Be the Final Price We Know It Seems Almost Too Good to Be True When. We State that Prices Were $19.75 to $59.50

We do not invite you to examine the pricetickets (showing original prices) as any one can mark a ticket with a false value—but we urge you to carefully examine the quality of the coats. This alone will make apparent the original prices—$19.75 to $59.50.

This is an evenly balanced clearance, as our models were equally popular throughout the season. Therefore one may select from a large variety of styles, as there are in some instances only one or two coats of a style or size. And the selection is probably more pleasing be-cause the variety is extensive in the styles that have sold at the higher prices.

Coats of Blue and Black Serge in various weaves and weights, but all of excellent quality. Styles are unlimited in strictly tailored and trimmed modes. Lined and partially lined with peau de cygne.

Broadclath Coats, Black and Colors, majority are suitable for evening wear. Many are fashioned after fine imported models, although some were made to our special order in Europe. Also a few cape coats. Lined and partially lined with satin or near de cyene.

satin or peau de cygne. London "Chappie" Coats of Serge. That de-cidedly smart English style; three-quarter length, strictly man-tailored. Navy blue and black-and-white shepherd checks.

Coats of Tweed, Homelpun and Cheviot. Typical steamer and travelling coats, although they are suitable for general wear. Mostly in harmonies of tan, brown and gray. All told, there are about 800 coats in this final clearance at $15.

Economies of 40 to 50 per cent. may be enjoyed on the beautiful and distinctive wraps in our imported collection. The importance of this event Third Floor

Here Are Fifty Cases of Fine Japanese China at Half Price

We have sold large quantities of this favorite Japanese China, at full prices, since the Store opened. The importers are naturally pleased—and want to help us sell even greater quantities. So they rounded up in their Japanese factory several thousand pieces of "mill remainders," and brought them over for us to sell at just half of their usual prices.

We devote part of the Main Aisle, tomorrow, to this unusually interesting showing. The China is all hand-painted, in beautiful decorations, on graceful shapes; so large a quantity naturally includes every conceivable article which may be obtained in Fancy China. Specially good news for those who need this effective but inexpensive China for Summer homes:
